2016 President's Awards Presented to Realtors® at General Membership Meeting

Springfield, MA February 22, 2017 – The General Membership meeting of the Realtor® Association of Pioneer Valley (RAPV) to induct new members and present the 2016 President's Awards took place on Thursday, February 16, at the Login Cabin in Holyoke.

The 190 attendees enjoyed statements from President Richard Sawicki, Immediate Past President Lou Mayo, Ben Scranton, Chief Executive Officer, and guest speaker Jamie Moore, National Association of Realtors® Region I Vice President. Six new Realtors® were inducted into membership by RAPV Secretary Susan Drumm.

The President's Award is presented to those Realtors® who have shown exemplary involvement in the Association and outstanding sales activity throughout the year. A combination of participation in Membership Meetings, Networking Events, and service to various Committees, along with overall Sales Criteria contribute to qualification for the President's Award. A total of 64 Realtors® were recognized with a President's Award.

About the Realtor® Association of Pioneer Valley

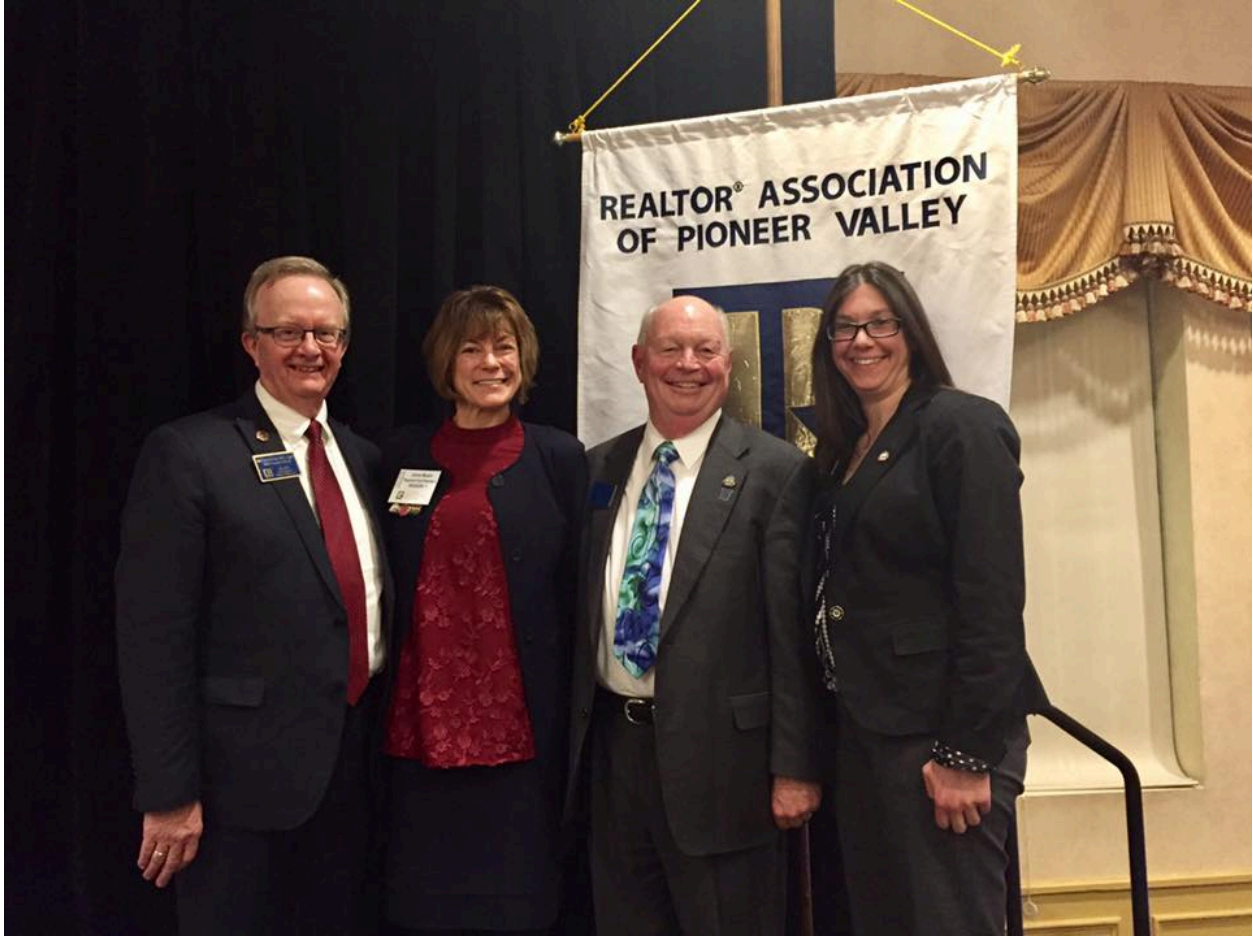

Organized in 1915, the Realtor® Association of Pioneer Valley (RAPV) is a professional trade organization with over 1,700 members in the Pioneer Valley of western Massachusetts. RAPV is one of approximately 1,200 local chapters of the National Association of Realtors®. RAPV covers 68 communities in 3 counties; Franklin, Hampshire and Hampden.

The term Realtor® is a registered collective membership mark that identifies a real estate professional who is a member of the National Association of Realtors® and subscribes to its strict code of ethics and enjoy continuing education programs.

Editors and reporters: Please note that the term Realtor® is properly spelled with an initial capital "R", per the Associated Press Stylebook.

Mission:

To champion private property rights and advocate for our members
