Hurst Receives Endorsement from the Realtor® Association of Pioneer Valley

Springfield, Mass. August 17, 2020 – Denise Hurst, a candidate for the Massachusetts House of Representatives 9th Hampden District, has received a full endorsement from the Realtor® Association of Pioneer Valley (RAPV). RAPV is proud to support her in the upcoming primary election. Hurst interviewed with RAPV and thoroughly impressed the interviewing committee with her answers to the Association’s candidate questionnaire and her willingness to learn about the issues that were new to her. Denise’s work with the Massachusetts Association of School Committees will be an important area of expertise on Beacon Hill and will serve to shape or local communities.

“Ms. Hurst exhibits a commitment to homeownership, private property rights, and economic growth and development. We believe she will work hard to fulfill those responsibilities,” said Sue Drumm, President of the Realtor® Association of Pioneer Valley. ■
